

A group of elderly people, mostly women, are dancing in a large room decorated with colorful garlands. They are wearing traditional Tibetan clothing, including hats and long sleeves. The room has large windows and a wooden floor.

A medical worker in a white coat and blue cap is examining a woman's hand. Another woman, wearing a traditional patterned vest and a black hat, is having her blood pressure checked by a medical worker in a blue cap. A health information booklet is on the table.
